John Carter and Graham Pollard electrified the world of books and book-collecting in 1934 with an exposure of literary forgery on a grand and systematic scale. From the 1880's there had appeared on the market, through sale rooms or private transaction, a steady stream of 'rare' or 'early' editions in paperbound form of works by the Brownings, Swinburne, Morris, Wordsworth, Stevenson, Tennyson, George Eliot, Ruskin, Kipling, D.G. Rossetti, Thackeray and others. Using their bibliographic skills and their knowledge of paper, type and ink, Carter and Pollard demonstrated that these publications were not what they purported to be. An Enquiry is a masterly detective story, gripping and exhilarating in the irresistible force of its analysis; 2 volumes. £90 ITEM X102-1025-H

The output of the Edinburgh binders James and William Scott stands out in the work of 18th century Scottish bookbinders. Though few William Scott bindings are known today, a substantial number of James's bindings have survived: his work was characterised by its clean break from the Scottish geometrical style of binding ornamentation towards a style aimed at the kind of people who would be patrons of Chippendale or Adam and might be expected to want to own bookbindings which would fittingly adorn their houses. Detailed descriptions of all known Scott bindings and includes full-page reproductions of all but a few. It also examines in detail (and reproduces) the tools and rolls employed. Includes index. Size: 27cm. 400 pages. £50. ITEM X104-1141-H

Royal Asiatic Society Offprints. 400 Title Collection. 1876 to 1990. A collection of over 400 rare and uncommon Offprints from the prestigious Journal of The Royal Asiatic Society. PLEASE NOTE: These are not reprints or extracts, they are rare Offprints, not extracts or reprints. Founded in 1823 by the Sanskrit scholar Sir Henry Thomas Colebrooke, the Society has counted many distinguished and important explorers, writers and eminent individuals among its members, including Sir Richard Burton (1821-90), Rabindranath Tagore (1861-1941), and Sir Wilfred Thesiger. A full list of the titles in the collection is available on request. Size: Octavo. £500. ITEM 196913
